NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

REVENUE of the French election in 1,100 cantons are in, and Boulanger's number is not increased above the twelve heard from yesterday. This shows Boulanger out of politics much more effectively than if he had been convicted of treason and guillotined.

DURING the year ending June 30, 1889, the commitments to the county prison in Philadelphia were 10,000 less than during the previous year. The commitments for Sunday offenses fell off 70 per cent in the same time, and the commitments of women also 70 per cent. This is the result of the first full year's trial of the high license law.

WHEN Dr. Tanner, member of Parliament for Mid-Cork, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment yesterday for assaulting a Police Inspector, he yelled to the magistrate: "I defy you. The magistrates are the real criminals!" The court thereupon added three months to his imprisonment. The cause of Ireland would quickly sink into contempt if it had many such fool friends as Tanner.

WHILE Father Speer was praying at the altar of a German Catholic church in Pittsburgh yesterday, a member of the congregation rose silently from his knees, and creeping along the aisle with a heavy bowdler in his hand, aimed it at the reverend father, hitting him squarely in the head and cutting two ugly scars. For this exuberant expression of superior piety he was locked up to await the effects of the wounds.

CINCINNATI'S Sunday law violators did not march to the police court behind a band of music as agreed upon in the convention last Saturday, but came in quietly and gave bail. They have suddenly made the discovery that the law can reach a saloon-keeper, and the knowledge makes them weak in the knees and pale in the face. There were 1,200 in the convention that resolved to break the law, but it is found that less than 200 kept their doors open.

POSTMASTER VANCOTT began the experiment yesterday of collecting letters from the street boxes in New York with horse and wagon. He finds that he can save from twenty to thirty minutes on each route. With carts adapted to the purpose, he believes that still more time can be saved. Some carts are to be built for this peculiar service, and the plan thoroughly tested. It will effect a great saving of shoe-leather and muscular wear and tear among the carriers.

MISS JENNIE SLACK of Villisca, Iowa, sixteen years old, and having an invalid father, has this year planted and cultivated 85 acres of corn, milked six cows morning and night, and helped in other work about the farm and house. The crop is going to be a big one. Miss Jennie is not slack as some men count slackness, and her name appears to be a little out of joint. Some young man will undoubtedly help her change it, as she is said to be pretty and intelligent as well as industrious.

JAMES R. GARFIELD, son of the dead President, is booked for a seat in Congress from the nineteenth Ohio district as soon as Mr. Taylor, the old man who was his father's successor, retires. Young Garfield is said to possess many of the qualities that made his father illustrious. The district is noted for the length of time that it sends men to Congress. President Garfield represented it for twenty years, Joshua R. Giddings twenty-one, and Mr. Taylor has been elected to his fifth term.

POSTMASTER GENERAL WANAMAKER's report on the New York post office, just published, declares that the building is absolutely unfit for use, both as to capacity, ventilation, and the health of the employees. The foul odors from the basement are breeding disease and death. He recommends, if it is decided not to purchase a new site, that the government buy the sidewalk on the south side of Mail street and erect a wing two stories high that will give 10,000 feet additional space on each floor.

DURING the fiscal year ended June 30, 1888, there were imported into the United States 3,292,793,280 pounds of sugar. In the same year there were raised in Louisiana and other Southern states 375,904,197 pounds, or less than one tenth of the whole purchased and consumed by the people of the United States. To protect the planters of Louisiana and other one or two other Democratic states in raising one pound of sugar, the people of the United States pay a tariff duty of 24 to 3 cents a pound on ten pounds. Here is room for tariff reform that is reform.

DR. J. J. CONCORAN of Brooklyn was called upon Sunday morning to visit Wm. J. Tate of Bergen street, whom he found dying of heart disease, and given up by another doctor. Concoran administered morphine in the hope of prolonging life a few hours, but the patient was too far gone and died in half an hour. Then Tate's son accused the doctor of killing his father, and attacked and beat him and drove him from the house without coat or hat, the whole family yet alive joining in the pursuit. They would probably have killed the doctor if he had not been a policeman. With him he returned to the house and recovered his clothing. After the dead Tate is buried he proposes to make it lively for the survivors.

KENTUCKY is to vote for a State Treasurer next Monday. Kentucky at this distance is looked upon as solid for the Democracy, but down upon the "dark and bloody ground" itself the recollection of "Honest Dick" Tate's defection in the office has caused a fluttering among the leaders. The Louisville Courier-Journal puts forth an appeal that shows Henry Watterson to be in a frantic state of mind. He says, "there are serious grounds of apprehension, and if the Democratic party is to be saved from a humiliating defeat, it must be done by securing a full Democratic vote." He adds that there is "general demoralization and widespread apprehension of defeat." Well, what if Kentucky should go Republican and put an honest man in the Treasurer's office!

SIX THOUSAND INDIANS PRESENT

At the Opening of the Council Yesterday—They Still Remain Firm.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 30.—Six thousand Indians were present awaiting the signal of the Commissioners to open the Council yesterday, and the numerous whites, who are anxious to have the reservation opened, were looking on.

The Commission met at 11 o'clock, and the Indians were asked if they had examined the treaty. John Grass said they had, and that they had not seen anything in it that would benefit him and he would not sign. He understood the bill well enough to know it was not what the Indians wanted. He said that the Indians were not to be taken from the sale of the lands and promised the provisions of the treaties of 1868 and 1876 would be carried out, and that their rations and clothing would be continued as now.

The Indians will be asked to sign the treaty to get the best of them. Sitting Bull, Gall, Grass and Mad Bear have sworn eternal opposition to the treaty. Sitting Bull is disgusted with the conference, and threatens to leave with his followers. The Indians of his tribe are more satisfactorily represented in the discussions.

General Crook has been cautious thus far and is making a careful study of the question. He is also silent and when he is asked to speak he will find a brave opponent in this unwavering Chief. Long Dog, Rain in the Face and other Chiefs, who were among the most blood-thirsty of the leaders during the Custer campaign, are also here and are unalterably opposed to ceding the lands to the whites.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The Indians of the Devil's Lake Reservation, Northern Dakota, have refused to accept of lands and rations, as contemplated in the general allotment act of 1887.

Captain Duvigne's Sentence.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—A dispatch was received at the State Department from John P. Campbell, Consul at Tampate, announcing the result of the trial of Captain L. Duvigne for killing Consul Agent Victor F. M. Stanwood, at Andakaba, Madagascar, last November.

Duvigne was tried by the Consular Court, found guilty of man slaughter and sentenced to imprisonment for 10 years and to pay a fine. He will be brought to this country to serve out his sentence.

The Wool Decision is Restrictive.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—Assistant Secretary Tichenor has telegraphed as follows to representative H. Townsend, of Colorado: "The meaning and effect of the appraisers' report and Department's decision concerning wool waste is evidently misunderstood. Decision in every respect restrictive and prevents importations at low rates of these so-called wastes."

GRAND LODGE HAS NO JURISDICTION.

Action Brought in Court of Interest to Scottish Rite Masons.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., July 30.—An action was begun yesterday in the District Court at Marion that will startle Masonic circles more than anything else, perhaps, of late years. Judge Preston of the Eighteenth Judicial District, on the petition of C. E. Barnes, of Burlington, Iowa, has granted a writ of prohibition against the Grand Lodge of Iowa, plaintiffs and Grand Officers of the Iowa Consistory of that branch of Scottish Rite Masonry commonly known as the Cerneau, ordered a temporary injunction against the Grand Lodge of Iowa, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, putting into effect the legislation of the last session of the Grand Lodge referring to the Cerneau bodies and which commands Master Masons to leave the Consistory of Iowa of that rite under punishment of expulsion. The petition states as the body represented by the plaintiffs does not confer the Blue Lodge degrees and the Grand Lodge or its subordinate lodges do not confer the 32 higher degrees, the Grand Lodge has no jurisdiction whatever and its action is illegal, arbitrary, oppressive, proscriptive of their individual consciences and Masonic relations and hurtful to their standing as good and reputable citizens. This is the first time a Masonic body has appealed to the State Courts and the action of the Supreme Court to which it will finally be referred. The Grand Lodge of Iowa, the time for hearing the arguments for a perpetual injunction will be in the October term at Marion.

The Fashions.

One of the most beautiful toilets seen this summer is made of palest golden-green watered silk, draped with golden tulle sprayed with blue, gold leaves. The dress is in princess shape, demi-train, the bodice is cut out square front and back and veiled lightly with the tulle. The sleeves are short, and the garment consists of trailing sprays of pink and blue, and foliage, mingled with pale yellow honeycomb blossoms. A slender blonde of the purest golden type wears this toilet, to the admiration of all who behold her in it.

The caprice for borrowing details from masculine attire grows still more evident, and in tailoring and dress-making, the standard, while keeping its own, has been made out of the skirt to distinguish them from men's dress. Soft felt hats in black, white, and gray are worn, caps with cloth or leather covers, stiff neckties with scarf pins, sailor knots and collars, vests and cutaway jackets, link buttons, shirt waists and studs, and so on.

For very young ladies are fashions composed of expensive and elaborate details, are joined diagonally at the middle of the back, crossed in front with a few pleats to conform them to the figure, and knotted at the waist behind. This is a style revised from one popular in the latter part of the last century. Silk embroidered robes of China with deep netted fringes from the most elegant and drossy light wraps for the piazza. They are especially popular in cream white, as they may be worn with any dress. They also appear in white, English pink, mauve and pale cream-color.

Garden fuchsia and half-shawls of white muslin and lace are worn with hats of shirred muslin to correspond.

"Uncle Sam" Shows His Teeth.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The steamer "Doris" has been captured by the British sealer "Black Diamond" by the United States revenue cutter "Richard Rush." On July 11 the "Rush" overtook the "Doris" and ordered it to heave to. The Captain of the "Black Diamond" refused. Thereupon the commander of the "Rush" ordered a lowering of ports and raring out of guns, which caused the schooner to leave to Captain Shepard and Lieutenant Tuttle boarded the English craft, and asked for its papers. Captain Shepard at once broke open the cabin and forced the British sailors to pay no attention in case he was overtaken by the "Rush" and requested to leave to. He said he would not have surrendered if the "Rush" had had an inferior force to his own.

Canal Improvement Hids Opened.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 30.—Bids for lengthening locks on the Erie and Oswego Canals under the $60,000 appropriation made by the last Legislature were opened in the State Capitol building at Albany, N. Y., as follows: Lock 65, Erie Canal (Monroe County), B. P. Smith, of Rochester, $20,289.50; William Patrick, $27,169. Awarded to the latter.

Lock No. 66, Erie Canal, B. P. Smith, $65,832; William Patrick $27,767.50, awarded to Patrick. Lock No. 9, Oswego Canal, William Patrick, $28,155.85; W. S. Nelson, of Oswego, $34,242; Case & Jennings, Fulton, $28,005.25; awarded to Nelson. Lock No. 10, Oswego Canal, William Patrick, $25,357.60; W. S. Nelson, $23,885; Case & Jennings, $25,458; awarded to W. S. Nelson.

For rebuilding Lock 12, Black River Canal, J. C. Barker, of Rochester, $15,944; Frank A. Barrett, Boonville, $15,509.90. Awarded to the latter. On the four remaining locks to be lengthened, $100,000 has been appropriated.

Brothers, of Syracuse, were the only ones who submitted bids and they were held for further consideration.

Washington Jottings.

Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt has begun his report on the result of the last year's investigation into the administration of the Civil Service law in the Baltimore Post-Office.

Officials of the Navy Department deny the reports that there is any trouble over the construction of the Texas at the Norfolk Navy Yard, with a court-martial as a possible result.

Professor Mendall, recently appointed Superintendent of the Coast Survey, has been designated as a member of the Light-House Board, vice Professor Hilgard.

The President had before him this morning the papers in the case of Mary, an Arkansas woman, who is charged with the murder of a yellow fever epidemic at Tampico, Mexico, to be without foundation.

A batch of appointments may be looked for after the return of the President to Washington the latter part of the week.

Meeting of Chamber of Commerce.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, July 30.—The Chamber of Commerce Committee on the proposed Exposition held its first meeting to-day. Twenty-four of the 60 members were present. Cable correspondence from Whitehall Ridge, in reference to the receipts and disbursements of the present French Exposition, were read.

A resolution by J. Edward Simmons that a list of 50 members of the Chamber be submitted to Mayor Grant for appointment on the Committee was carried.

Items of Interest in Relation to Base Ball And Other Matters.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League: At Washington—New-York 5, Washington 2. At Boston—Boston 7, Philadelphia 6. 10 innings. At Pittsburgh—Chicago 13, Pittsburgh 8. American Association: At Philadelphia—Athletic 8, Kansas City 6. At Baltimore—St. Louis 4, Baltimore 3, first game. Baltimore 0, St. Louis 0, second game.

Among the pitchers Clarkson has played in more games than any other, 37 being made. Buffton is next, with 31 games, and Getzen third, with 28. O'Brien has the best record, making 100 out of the standard, while Keefe leads with base hits made off pitching as the standard.

A riot nearly occurred at the game between the Baltimore and St. Louis clubs, yesterday at Baltimore. Some of the crowd at a decision made by the umpire that a platoon of police had to be sent for. The lot of the average umpire seems to be an unhappy one.

O'Day, pitcher, and Lyons, fielder, have been added to the list of New-York players. Lyons' batting may improve the playing of the team, but with Keefe, Welch and Crane as pitchers it is difficult to see what O'Day was hired for.

Twining has caught more games than any other catcher in the League, having played in 51 matches. Miller, of the Pittsburghs, has played in 50. Clements in 48, Bennett in 42, Zimmer in 41, and Farrell in 40.

This week the New-Yorkers will not play in the Metropolitan until August 22. At Saratoga to-day it rained steadily and the track was of the consistency of mortar. In the first race, three-quarters of a mile, Maori won, from second, Clockwork third, and in the second race, one and one-quarter miles, Los Angeles won, Hanover second, Montrose third. Time 2:13.

In the third race, one and one-eighth miles, King of the Clouds won, second, Time 2:42. In the fourth race, Spinaway Stakes, five furlongs, Daisy Fawn, Rupert second, Estelle third. Time 1:04. In the fifth race, mile and seventy yards, Queen Elizabeth won, Carrie G. second, Vind third. Time 1:54.

At Goodwood, England, to-day, the race for the Steward's Cup was won by James' Dog Rock, by Mrs. Ampleton second, Penryn third, and the fourth, by Mrs. Ampleton. L. L. Dorsey's trotting horses were sent to the Highlands Stock Farm, Ky., yesterday. Thirty-three had brought $14,840.

Fire Belt of Timber Destroyed in Idaho—A Vast Area Now In Flames.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, July 30.—Forest fires are sweeping through this country, destroying one of the finest belts of timber in Idaho. The country is so dry that the fires are spreading over a great area.

DENVER, Col., July 30.—Sunday and yesterday a heavy, smoky atmosphere hung over Denver. Information from points in this State, Wyoming, Northern New Mexico, Western Kansas and Nebraska indicate the same condition there. The impression is that immense forest fires are raging in the Rocky Mountains.

GUNSMITH, Col., July 30.—For two or three days the mountains in this vicinity have been ablaze with burning timber. The fire was located last Friday at the head of Lost Gulch. To the north of the Gulch the fire raged along a well timbered mountain. The air was dense with black smoke. Yesterday the smoke was again seen from the Marshall and it was feared that the fire had spread to the timber was alive below Shawnee. It is supposed to have been started by sparks from locomotives.

The Closing Quotations.

NEW-YORK, July 30.—The stock market this morning was intensely dull with scarcely any movement. London prices were higher than here yesterday. Among the few stocks traded in showed gains over last evening's prices of 4 and 5 per cent, generally while Northwestern was exceptional with an advance of 4. There was some animation in the morning, but the range of prices exceeded 4 per cent, and late in the hour the drooping tendency reached the stronger stocks. The market at 11 o'clock was extremely dull and rather heavy.

THE TANNER INVESTIGATION.

A daily perusal of the newspapers brings the discovery that the Democratic press has suddenly ceased "jumping on Tanner." Before the investigation of that officer began the papers of that party poured out columns of abuse morning and evening. When the investigation was ordered they were sure that Secretary Noble had become disgusted and Tanner's head was to drop. They ignored the fact that they knew it that the investigation had been demanded by Tanner himself, to give him opportunity for a vindication from Democratic slanders. The investigation is now in progress, and the Democratic press has become suddenly silent. Like the man who followed the bear for three days, they have quit the trail "because the track was getting too fresh."

It was inevitable that the administrations of Tanner and Black should be found, tailed together, and that an investigation of the former would lead back to inquiries concerning the latter. Now something has been discovered concerning Tanner's re-arrangings of which so much Democratic complaint has been heard. It is found that in many cases in which he has issued a special order Black refused to do it, though his own medical examiners recommended it. In others Tanner has re-rated pensions at $14 a month which Black had cut down to $2 a month. Tanner found thousands of these two classes of cases which it became his duty to adjust and he has done it. This naturally gives rise to the question whether Black toward soldiers who were faithful in their adherence to the Republican party.

But another policy was pursued towards Democrats. Black's generosity was boundless when dealing with them. His friend and mentor in this department of duty was "Bishop" Obery of the Indian Commission. He is known to have been an almost constant caller at the Pension Bureau, from the beginning to the end of Black's term. He had only to ask that a case be made "special" and it was done. A list of these cases, re-rated and increased at Obery's request, shows hundreds of names. He rewarded Black for these favors by recommending his friends for positions in the various departments. Another politician who traded extensively in pension specials was Postmaster General Dickinson. His visits to the Bureau were almost as frequent as Obery's. He got his Democratic friends re-rated and their pensions increased, and in return placed Black's friends in positions in the Postoffice Department. Black was looking for the Vice Presidency on the Cleveland ticket, and very indubitably placed the money of the government over which he had control where it would do the most good to his boom.

These things have scared the Democratic newspapers into silence. One of them is sure that Tanner is to be whitewashed, and thinks the sooner the job is done and the investigation closed, the greater will be the saving to the government. The Pension Bureau is regarded by politicians as a very powerful political machine. The New York Press's Washington correspondent quotes a remark of James E. Campbell, prospective Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, that he can carry the state with 15,000 votes to spare. "If they'll only kick Jim Tanner out of the Pension office." But Tanner is not going.

THE PLATTSBURGH NORMAL SCHOOL.

The Albany Times explains, for the information of the state, the reason why Gov. Hill approved the bill for a state normal school at Plattsburgh and vetoed all the others. It says that "a normal school in the remote northwestern region of the state was more of a necessity than anywhere else, inasmuch as that region is many miles away by rail from any other normal school." It is convinced that Smith M. Weed had no influence with the Governor in slugging out this bill for his approval, for it points to the fact that Superintendent of Public Instruction Draper has appointed a Board of Local Managers of whom a majority are Republicans. It appears to believe that if the Governor had been actuated by partisan motives he could never have approved the bill until he had made a bargain with Superintendent Draper to appoint a Democratic local board. It mentions that Mr. Weed is a member of the Board, but does not suggest any form of punishment if he should assert a boss-ship over the other members on the claim that he saved the bill and brought the institution to Plattsburgh.

We suppose the Plattsburgh Republicans as well as Democrats are glad to get the school, and will do their utmost to make it a success. Plattsburgh is about 100 miles from Potsdam and 100 from Albany, the two nearest points at which normal schools are already located. The counties to which the Plattsburgh school will be most accessible are Clinton, Essex and a part of Franklin. The total population of these three counties is 117,802. If population is to constitute the basis of normal school distribution, then Le should also have approved the one at Whites-town, as that would have accommodated Oneida, Lewis, Herkimer and Madison, with an aggregate population of 233,672.

But it is not till we consider the veto of the Jamaica bill that the discrimination appears outrageous. Jamaica is the county seat of Queens county, and is ten miles by rail from Brooklyn and New York. There is no normal school on Long Island, though the population of the Island was 743,957 by the last census, and, adding Richmond, probably counts a million people at the present time. To Jamaica the nearest normal school is at New Paltz, and it is pretty well known here that neither the people of Long Island nor New York are attending that school. The Jamaica school would have become a very great and useful one in a short time. The city of New York would have patronized it for the improvement of its teachers, and made it the foremost institution of the kind in the state if not in the world. And the school at White Plains would have become almost equally valuable except for the Governor's blue pencil.

The approval of the Plattsburgh bill, with those of Jamaica, White Plains and Whites-town left out, has an unfortunate look for the Governor, and makes his defense difficult. We do not see how he can get over the fact that the people of Clinton county are giving Smith M. Weed the entire credit for saving the school from a veto. They appear to understand how it happened, and the sort of influence that was brought to bear, the Governor's Albany mouthpiece to the contrary notwithstanding.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES IN MIDSUMMER.

Ex-Congressman Collins declares that the Democrats have a fair chance to carry the state of Massachusetts next when Mr. Tison was elected Governor. He says the Republicans are very bigoted against the Democrats, who they fully realize have used them for years as catspaws, and they have gone into the campaign with more earnestness than ever before. When we take this fact into consideration along with the discontent of New England manufacturers, it is not surprising that Mr. Collins is hopeful. —Clara Wheeler, Lenox.

Which remarks remind us that Don M. Dickinson was positive last summer that Michigan was going to cast its vote for Cleveland. Wm. F. Vilas claimed to hold an equally valid mortgage upon Wisconsin. Mr. Voorhees was so sanguine about Indiana that the canvass was left to run itself there. When Thurman was put on the national ticket the Democratic party was thrilled with the picture of his irresistible qualities, and Ohio was counted in. Illinois was coming the same way because of gratitude for the elevation of a "favorite son" to the Chief Justiceship, and also because of the disappointment of Republicans that Gresham was not taken instead of Harrison. In New York the "campaign of education" led by Roger C. Mills, W. C. P. Breckinridge, John M. Allen, W. P. Taubee and other adherents to the free trade principle in the Confederate Constitution was to save the state by the conversion of the farmers. About this time one year ago the Democrats were willing to concede only Vermont, Kansas and possibly Pennsylvania as likely to cast their votes for Harrison. The great free trade message of Grover Cleveland, and the boundless personal popularity that he had achieved through his rebel flag order, his pension veto and his eulogy on Jefferson Davis, had revolutionized the Republican party and made every intelligent and candid man therein a Democrat.

We are very glad, therefore, to learn from Mr. Collins that Massachusetts is likely to go Democratic. It is the regulation news for the closing days of July and the Ides of August. It will not do any harm. The Republican plurality in Massachusetts on President last fall was 32,037, an increase of 8,600 since 1884, and of 15,000 over the plurality on Governor in 1887. The Old Bay State shows no signs of going backward.

STATESMEN IN ALASKA.

Dignified Senators Look on at a Dance in Sitka.

OMAHA, Neb., July 29.—The correspondence of the Des Moines Register, Alaska, writes under date of July 23: "The Albatross, with the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, arrived here on Sunday afternoon. They are on their return to Port Townsend, whence they will go at once to Portland, thence to the Flat Head Indian reservation in Montana and thence East. At New Metlakatla, Port Chester, Alaska, the committee commenced their inquiries into the complaints of Mr. Duncan, the English missionary who has been among this tribe for the last thirty years. They number about 1,200. On account of his very liberal religious teachings, but they made a thorough investigation into the condition of the Indians, and found them living in apparent content, and engaged in almost all the pursuits of the whites.

They are anxious to possess lands in severalty, or to have certain parcels set aside for them, that they may cultivate and hold by individual right, and they ask that the whole of Gravier Island be given to their tribe. The committee found the state of morals of the Indian women at New Metlakatla far above the average of Indian women in this territory. At Sitka the committee visited the habitations of the Indians and learned from personal intercourse of their habits and needs. At this place, as well as at the different points visited so far, they have failed to find a single case where an Indian woman or girl has been forcibly taken from her parents by white men. They have, however, learned that the women are of loose morals. On the night of the arrival of the Albatross a party of the committee was brought before the guidance of Colonel Canaday, at a late hour, and in the dance hall saw the dusky maidens dancing and drinking with their white partners.

Inquiry into the titles of real estate disclosed the fact that in this town of a thousand inhabitants not a foot of land is owned in fee simple, but that buildings and improvements pass from one to another by simply a bill of sale, and this practice is universally regarded as in every respect a complete and perfect title.

A meeting was held in the Town Hall this morning. It was packed with Indians, and some individual complaints were made as to the cruel treatment received by the male members of the tribe from the white men, but they disclosed no outrages upon women. At a public meeting of the citizens no clearly defined ideas were expressed as to their needs, but the extension of the homestead laws to territory was favored.

THE WHIPPING POST IN MARYLAND.

A White Man Whipped Under the Law of 1887 for Wife Beating.

BALTIMORE, July 29.—The American this evening received the following special from Hagerstown: "The first whipping administered in this county since the passage of the act of 1887 for wife beating occurred here this afternoon. The prisoner was David C. H. Herbert, a resident of the Carfoss district, this county. Herbert is a tall, well-proportioned white man, while his wife, who made the complaint, is a fragile, delicate-looking woman. At the trial before Justice Bitter it was proved that Herbert, while intoxicated last Friday, beat and choked his wife into unconsciousness. While she was in that condition he grabbed a chair, swearing that he intended to kill her. He was prevented from carrying his threat into execution by his son wrestling the chair from him. Herbert has been guilty of the same offense several times before, and the Justice determined to impose a salutary restraint upon his future conduct by sentencing him to receive fifteen lashes and an imprisonment of five days in jail.

"The Sheriff was notified and at once made preparations to carry the sentence into execution. A thick piece of leather two feet in length, tapering to the end, and joined to a wooden handle, was selected for the lash. The wretch, after being stripped to the waist, was made to stand handcuffed to the bars of a door in the jail. One of the deputies counted the strokes while the Sheriff laid them on with force and in quick succession. During the whipping the prisoner writhed repeatedly, and several times moaned escaped him. After the last stroke had fallen it was found that a portion of the prisoner's back was covered with welts, and his right side, which the end of the strip had lashed, was badly discolored, and in several places ridges had been raised."

GENERAL NEWS MATTER

TELEGRAPH, CABLE AND MAIL NEWS AND CHAT-BY-THE-WAY.

Bismarck at Varsin.—The Brennan torpedo—The Yellow River of China—Prices in 1810 and at the Present Time in London—Electric Tempering—The Congo Railway.

The London World says: "Prince Bismarck's health is so good that he will not require to visit Kissingen this season, and is now settled in Varsin till the middle of August. The Schloss of Varsin is a large plain house of two stories, in which are the kitchen and offices. The principal rooms look out on a vast lawn, and on this side of the lawn there is a wide veranda. The estate extends to 22,000 acres, of which 15,000 are covered with some of the finest forest in Germany, principally oak and beech. The Prince has a home farm of 400 acres, and the remainder of the property is let in large farms, averaging 700 acres. All the woods are in hand, and Prince Bismarck has several large mills on the River Wipper, which runs through the estate. He has greatly improved and developed this property, and his forests furnish most of the wooden payment in the streets of Berlin. The country all round Varsin is picturesque, and there are beautiful walks and drives through the woods for many miles in every direction. The estate was given to Prince Bismarck by the late Emperor William in 1866."

The Taunton Gazette (Mass.) says: "The colored churches in this city are having a hard experience. In the winter the Pastor of the Taunton Church walked out in earnest slippers and sued for his salary in vain. In Fall River the minister and Presiding Elder had to break into it to hold a service. In New Bedford one minister recently shook off the dust to avoid alleged starvation, and on Sunday another, the Rev. Randolph Hopp, Pastor of the Second Baptist Church (located), made a strange sort of a farewell address. He said he arrived a few months ago with 78 cents in his pocket, and he had received no pay, or very little. He and his wife had often made a meal of bread and water, and his wife had been driven to a bitter one. He had been refused credit by store-keepers. He said he wished everybody well, but at the same time he warned them that they would meet him at the judgment seat of God, and would have to answer for the way they had treated him. At the close one of the members presented Mr. Hopp a purse of money."

The practical results of the application of electricity to the tempering of steel have been satisfactory both in regard to the cost, and also uniformity of the product. A steel wire of half an inch diameter, of low grades of steel (No. 1) good spring steel, a plant where this tempering process is used on a large scale is able to temper 1,200 feet of steel wire, No. 18 Birmingham wire gauge, per hour, with an expenditure of one horse-power at the dynamo generating the current used to heat the steel. It is also used to harden, or to harden and temper, wires, as a different disposition of the current enables one to harden the surface, producing a result comparable to cast hardening; and Bessemer steel, containing one half of one per cent of carbon, can be tempered into spring wire, not, however, free from all brittleness. While the claims of this process, as outlined above, indicate that the method must be of great utility, yet its application has thus far been limited to a very few American establishments.

The London World says: "The first trial of a live Brennan torpedo appears to have been a great success, so perhaps we have not got such a bad bargain for our £110,000 after all. The winding engine and steering gear were set up at Hurst Castle, and the inventor made his first trial only round an old 800-ton bulk that was being towed through the Needles Channel, a mile and a half away, at the rate of 12 knots, and, when he chose, struck it fair amidships, and blew it into matchwood. Of course this is a very different weapon now from what it was when it left Melbourne, or even when, years afterwards, detailed drawings of it appeared in the scientific papers. The success at Chatham claim it now as their very own child."

The Hon. James F. Buckner, Collector of Internal Revenue at Louisville, Ky., for two years under President Grant and one term under Hayes, is dying from a paralytic stroke received Sunday night at his home in Louisville. Representatives of the Board of Trade and Produce Exchange, the Lumbermen's Exchange and the Grocers' Association left Chicago yesterday in a special car, over the Monon route, bound for Tampa, Fla., to change of Mr. Jones of that City, the object being to study the progress of railroad and steamship lines having Chicago and Tampa as their termini.

In London in 1816 it took just one bushel of corn to buy one pound of mals. Now one bushel of corn will buy 100 pounds of mals. Then it required 10 bushels of barley to buy one yard of broadcloth. Now the same amount of barley will pay for 20 yards of broadcloth. It then required the price of one bushel of wheat to pay for one yard of calico. Now one bushel of wheat will buy 20 yards of calico.

William Fec, a Wisconsin farmer, who sold dressed meat to Stillwater, Minn., which had not been inspected under the State law, was discharged yesterday by Judge Manwaring for constitutional reasons. He held that the action infringed upon the domain of the United States Congress, which regulates the commerce between States.

GENERAL ARMY AND NAVY NEWS.

Where Some United States Vessels Are—Major Alexander Sharpe Retired, Etc.—Rear Admiral Belknap, commanding the United States naval force on the Asiatic Station, reports to the Department under date of July 8, as follows: The Omaha is at Yokohama. The Marion is at Kobe. The Albatross will sail July 11 for Kobe, thence to Chemulpo, relieving the Palos. The latter upon being relieved will go to Nagasaki. The Monocacy is at Yokohama undergoing repairs.

First Lieutenant M. Wood has been detached from the torpedo station and ordered to the Gunboat Albatross, under the command of the First Lieutenant B. R. A cablegram received at the State Department announces that the Swatara arrived at Zanzibar yesterday morning.

General Theatrical Notes.

The stage came up for discussion at a Ruridical Conference in Liverpool, England, the other day, and the majority of the clergy men present spoke of the theatre with more intelligence and broader toleration than is common to this in assemblages of that character. One Rector even went so far as to declare that by preaching his doctrine of the resurrection of the body, he might reach with greater effect than the pulpit in some cases. One good Pastor referred to a report that actresses were sometimes called upon to appear in dresses which exposed them to the danger of catching cold. Another of the clergy, who had been compared with the curate in "The Private Secretary," and was justly wrathful. The Rev. S. C. French knew many persons who had been shocked deeply by "Faust" at the Lyceum, but did not explain the nature of the company he was in the habit of associating with.

"Out of the Broken Track," a play taken from the German by Meyrick Milton and tried recently at the London Strand Theatre, tells the story of a husband who throws away his purse on his wedding trip to gratify a romantic notion of his wife, who is then compared with the curate in "The Private Secretary," and was justly wrathful. The Rev. S. C. French knew many persons who had been shocked deeply by "Faust" at the Lyceum, but did not explain the nature of the company he was in the habit of associating with.

A Woman "Stricken with Remorse."

By Telegraph to The Freeman. CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—James A. Smith, who attempted to kill himself in Judge McConnell's Court, Saturday night, when he was found guilty of a criminal assault upon a little girl and sentenced to nine years in the penitentiary, will be a free man when he is able to leave the hospital. Since the sensational episode in the Court room when, with blood streaming from a cut over his heart, Smith protested his innocence, Judge McConnell has been investigating the rumors that there was a conspiracy to send Smith to prison. Yesterday afternoon he sent for the prisoner's wife and had a long interview with her. When Mrs. Smith emerged from the Judge's room she was weeping bitterly. Mrs. Smith desired a divorce and testified against Smith during the confinement might give grounds for the annulment of marriage. Stricken with remorse at his attempted suicide, she confessed her perjury to Judge McConnell and the latter will set aside the verdict.

Mistook His Father for a Burglar.

By Telegraph to The Freeman. HERMANSVILLE, Miss., July 30.—Edward Griffin, son of J. W. Griffin, an old farmer and citizen of Claiborne County, has been annoyed by a thief who made several attempts to break into the house. Upon going to bed last night the young man took his double-barreled shot-gun to bed with him. During the night a storm came up and blew his door open. Mr. Griffin, thinking his son was asleep, got up and looking out while in the act was fired upon by the son and instantly killed.

Killed at a Railroad Crossing.

CITY AND SUBURBAN NEWS

AND BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVER-HEARD HERE TO-DAY.

The "Dog Days"—Views Obtainable from City Hall—A Sign of a Hard Winter, Perhaps—A Senseless Practice at Post Offices—More Rain Promised on Wednesday.

In a conversation in regard to the Old Senate House to-day, it was said that a keeper should have been appointed for the place as soon as the improvements were finished. A keeper would naturally have an interest in making the place attractive to sight-seers and in all probability would have experienced no difficulty in collecting antique relics in a place so rich in them as this City.

The following business has been transacted in Ulster County Surrogate's Court: Contest of the will of Jane Freer withdrawn. The will will be admitted to probate. The matter of proving will of Leah C. Dupuy adjourned to October 21. Will of Isabella A. Mann, of Milton, proved. The legatees are as follows: To a sister, Sarah M. Ketcham, silver and gold jewelry, paintings, etc., and $500 in money; Isaac S. Ketcham, books and pictures; Martha M. Hicks, $100; John Mann, Jr., $100 and medical books; Laura A. Carpenter, $1,500; Phoebe H. Ketcham, books and furniture; Clara B. Cook, furniture, bedding, jewelry, clothing; Rachel B. Yail, clothing; Henry A. Cook, furniture; Esther DeGarmo, furniture, pictures and $1,000; Mary Jane Ketcham, $100; Rachel B. Yail, $100; Lydia B. Adams, furniture; Townsend H. Sherman, $300; $1,000 to Henry A. Cook and $1,000 to Clara B. Cook. The rest of the property to be divided between Clara B. Cook and Phoebe H. Ketcham. Townsend H. Sherman and Henry E. Lacey were appointed Executors. Will made June 4, 1887, and witnessed by Phoebe Hall Hollock, Henry H. Hallcock and Eula Schollock. A hearing was held in the matter of the estate of the late John J. Duffy.

Exquisite landscape views are obtainable from the City Hall. These views extend to the foot hills of the Catskills, and the mountains are so fresh and the mountains of such a deep bluish tint that strangers who come in town go in raptures over the beauty of the scene. Photographs have been taken of these places, but a photograph is tame and colorless. A true picture of the Catskill Mountains can never be taken until the art of "holding" the rich colors of nature is discovered.

Myer Brothers are in possession of a copy of the Ulster Gazette, dated January 4, 1890. It contains the following advertisement:

For Sale the one half of a Saw Mill With a convenient place for building, lying in the town of Rochester. By the mill is an inexhaustible quantity of pine wood. Also a Healthy Active Youth Wanted. Any person inclined to purchase may know particulars by applying to John Schoonmaker Jun. at Rochester, Nov. 13, 1890.

A stenographer who is in town makes use of an improved phonograph, known as the graphophone. The stenographer dictates his notes to the graphophone. Any copyist can by operating the machine reproduce the sounds and then write out the words. In reading to the machine the person must speak loud, deliberately and distinct. The machines are rented for $40 a year.

There are a number of buildings with porches in front in this City. Porches of olden times were named according to the number of columns. For instance, those with four columns were called tetrastyle, those with six columns, hexastyle, and with eight columns octostyle.

Young girls go to the Post Offices twice every day and ask for letters, who do not get one in a year's time. The practice is an annoying one to the clerks, who have enough to do without being bothered by such a persistent and senseless class of people.

Summer boarders, who are stopping at various points in Ulster and Greene counties, along the lines of the Ulster & Delaware and Stony Clove railroads, come to this City frequently to make purchases. Many of them take a look at the old Senate House.

Young hoodlums are having "fine times" with peans on trees in the Abel-Street Presbyterian parsonage yard. There appears to be no one to molest them or make them afraid—the boys are the best of them.

The Common Council and Board of Alms Commissioners will meet August 2, the Board of Excise August 5, and the Board of Health August 7; the Assessors will meet at the City Hall on Tuesday, August 20.

A person who has the figures says that it cost about $1,000 to repair Fair-Street with the new steam roller. It is estimated that it will cost $10,000 to put Union-avenue in good condition.

During the heavy rain-fall to-day the meadows of the Kingston Lowlands were "alive with little toads." Hundreds of them were gathered by fishermen, to be used as bait.

William T. Holt, who was Deputy Internal Revenue Collector of this District, intends to remove to New-York City. At present the office here is vacant.

Much food has been spoiled here during the past two days by the sultry weather. Demands upon ice men have been large.

Seven children of one family in Wiltwyck are being ill of recent fever. They range in age from 19 years to nine months.

Charles H. Burnett, of Washington, is in town. He is one of the stenographers of the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

A child of John H. Dittus, on Union-avenue, near the West Shore Railroad crossing, died yesterday of diphtheria.

Owing to the absence of a quorum of Trustees, no meeting of the Kingston Board of Education was held last night.

Sidewalks are being repaired in portions of this City. There are many more pitfalls yet to be looked after.

These are the dog days. Dogs can be killed humanely by firing a revolver ball into the forehead.

There are outbuildings and cess-pools here that should be inspected by the health officials at once.

Keep it in mind—"No cigarettes to boys" is the watch-word of conscientious vendors of cigars here.

Kingston Lodge, No. 413, I. O. O. F., will work the Initiatory and First Degrees on Friday night.

Work will probably be commenced on the First Ward sewers about the middle of August.

There are a large number of water current bushes growing on the Kingston Point flats.

Even the oldest weather prophet knows not at what moment rain will fall.

Many people would be pleased to see a firemen's parade here the coming fall.

The new mail-house at South-Rondout is rapidly approaching completion.

More rain and lower temperature are promised hereabout for Wednesday.

The Kingston Lowlands are green with fields of corn and cabbages.

The humidity of the atmosphere this forenoon was 95 per cent.

Ulster County peaches, early varieties, are in the local market.

The heavy rain this forenoon played havoc with hillside streets.

No complaints are heard that cisterns are empty these days.

Wall-street now has a clean but a very noisy pavement.

Catsnip is being gathered in the suburbs by certain women.

The large hay crop is said to be "a sign of a hard winter."

The rush to the Catskill Mountains continues.

FRUIT ALONG THE HUDSON RIVER.

Grapes Rottin' Badly—Early Peach Crop All Right—Speculators Buying Apples.

The storm now prevalent and the muggy, humid atmosphere of several previous days have played havoc with many Concord grape vines along the Hudson River and in inland localities also. The "berries" have been shelling badly for weeks. Now they are dropping on the ground in heaps, and in instances, rotting. Owners of vineyards are becoming greatly exercised, and the feasibility of calling a meeting of leading grape-growers to discuss the situation is being canvassed. There are growers who say that the "black rot," which recently ruined acres of vines in France and Germany, has appeared. Other growers say they attribute the shelling of the fruit to mildew.

Returns received to-day from 40 localities between Cornwall and Coeymans and elsewhere show that the grape crop in its entirety has been damaged fully 50 per cent. If more favorable atmospheric conditions do not speedily prevail, the probability is the loss inside of a week will be much more. Owners of vineyards are trying all sorts of "remedies" with varying success. This is the first time that the Concord grape crop has failed in 25 years' time. The vine has been looked upon as a "sure grower and producer," and the acreage of Concord has been steadily increased year after year.

The first of the early peaches are ripe. The crop along the Hudson River and inland for counties generally is one of the finest ever grown. The varieties now ripe or in process of ripening are beautifully colored and juicy to a degree. Returns show that the yield of late fruit promises to be excellent in quality, and compared to the past seven years large size.

Agents for English houses are buying large quantities of apples on the trees. The fruit when ripe will be shipped to Liverpool.

HOURS OF SUMMER RECREATION.

Outings at Points Up and Down the Hudson

On October 16 the members of Rapid Hudson Company will make an excursion to Newburgh and participate in the annual parade and inspection of the Fire Department of that City.

The excursion of the A. M. E. Zion Church to Long Island to-day was liberally patronized from this City despite the rain. The excursion large left the dock at about 10 o'clock.

The Baptist Sunday School of Catskill will picnic at Cole's Grove on Friday.

In the Church Porch. A summer festival will be given on the Poughkeepsie Driving Park on August 15. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund for a new church for St. Mary's Congregation.

The monthly business and social meeting of the Society of Christian Endeavor of the Warts-Street Baptist Church will be held on Friday evening.

A handsome window, in the form of a jeweled cross, has been placed in the apex of the west front of Christ Church, Poughkeepsie.

There will be a Service of Song for young men at the rooms of the Down-town Young Men's Christian Association to-night.

The next meeting of the Highland Clerics will be held at New-Windsor on August 1.

Along the Docks Here. Last night several tows rounded the Esopus light-house at about the same time. The lights on the boats made a pleasing scene for people in Poughkeepsie.

The whistle of the steamboat James W. Baldwin was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek at 10:44 o'clock last night.

There arrived at tide-water at Edjville yesterday 36 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 4,800 tons of coal.

Another Pennsylvania Coal Company boat is nearly completed at the Baisden boatyard at Edjville.

Seven schooners came into the Rondout Creek for cargoes to-day.

In Recorder's Court To-Day. Last night Officer Cassidy arrested a boatman named John Keator, of Rock Lock, on suspicion of having stolen a watch from the bank of James Early, Captain of a Delaware & Hudson Canal Boat. When arraigned Keator denied having taken the watch. The case was adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Owen Rafferty withdrew a charge of assault and John Moody, the accused, was discharged after paying the costs—$4.

John Schillman, farm hand, Ohioville, indicted, 10 days in the Ulster County Jail.

Local Laborers' Wages to be Advanced. Beginning on August 1 the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company will advance the dock laborers wages from $1.35, the present rate, to $1.50 per day. This action is voluntary on the part of the Company, the men having made no demand for an increase, and the "raise" will be a surprise to them.

Local Sporting Notes. A game of ball will be played on the Union-avenue grounds on Friday between the All American nine, colored, and the West Shores.

There will be races on the Goshen Driving Park on Saturday.

An Overcoat Worn by Washington. J. Hardenberg Jenkins, Milton, Ulster County, is the possessor of an overcoat, once worn by General George Washington.

It was given to Jenkins in 1840 by Daniel Hasbrouck, who then owned the Headquarters grounds at Newburgh.

More July Fish Stories Told. Several fine striped bass were caught from the "City of Kingston" dock last evening. Fine messes of trout are being caught in Catskill Mountain streams.

The Rush to the Catskill Mountains. Notwithstanding the heavy down-pour of rain to-day over 100 people en route for the Catskills arrived here on the 2:35 West Shore train this afternoon and 77 on the ferry-boat Transport's Day-boat trip.

SUBURBAN HAPPENINGS.

THE NEWS IN "LONG SHORE AND IN-LAND COUNTIES.

Fruit Growers to Hold a Meeting—Crops at Rosendale—Sport at Ellenville—An Old Building Demolished at Milton—A Dutchess County Criminal Case.

THE FREEMAN desires to make this department as complete and comprehensive as possible, and to this end invites its readers in places not represented by regular correspondents to communicate news.

THE HUDSON RIVER AND INLAND. A press dispatch from Poughkeepsie reads: "John C. Bradley, a farmer who lived near Hibernia Village, Dutchess County, was charged last spring with robbing George Vail's store in Hibernia. He settled with Vail by paying him $1,000, but he and his wife were afterwards indicted for the crime. In the meantime they had moved West. A few days ago Frank L. Akery, a lawyer, received a letter from Bradley dated Wyoming, Neb., in which he appealed strongly to Akery to find out if he was indicted, and if he was he would come to Poughkeepsie with his wife, at his own expense, and give himself up, take his sentence and serve out his time."

He gives as his reason for doing so that he is tired of the West and that his life is rapidly going to the bad. He feels as though he and she ought to both serve out a sentence in prison and he thinks that is the only thing that will save her from utter ruin. Officer Hugh Moran, armed with a requisition from Governor Hill, will start to-night for Wyoming to bring Bradley and his wife back. In addition to sending the letter Bradley has also telegraphed twice to hurry up, as he is afraid his wife will run away with another man. Bradley is a war veteran and was made permanently lame by wounds received in battle.

A Campbell, of Middletown, representing the New York Dairy Company, Limited, has purchased the bottling creamery of R. R. Sloan at Oxford station. The dairy company formerly secured its supplies from Long Island, but now owns creameries at Gulf Summit near Deposit, and at Riverdale, near Binghamton, both on the Erie Road.

A night or two ago a panic was caused in the Matinean Opera House by the "calling off" of a musician at a lawn party next door. The word "Forward" bawled out by the musician was interpreted "fire" by the audience.

Some Italians are "just like some Americans" in the matter of spending money. One was paid $22 in Poughkeepsie on Friday. He went "on a spree" and when arrested, on Saturday, the only money found on his person was a one-dollar bill.

At Haverstraw last evening the body of a man, supposed, from papers found in the clothing, to be that of John Gallagher, a suicide, was taken from Eckerson's Pond.

The Peter Lasher turn of 200 acres at Red Hook has been purchased by Albert Carnright, of Saugerties, for $5,710.

A weak attempt was made one day recently to prosecute a Poughkeepsie man for a violation of the excise law.

The village of Rhinebeck now has a Board of Health.

Dr. O. M. Studd, of Poughkeepsie, is ill.

Gloucester Matters. The body of Wesley Cook, of New York City, who ended his life by jumping from the steamer "Ansonia" on its Thursday night trip from New York, was brought to this place on Sunday for internment, in compliance with his last request, this being his former home and birthplace. He was about 50 years of age, and leaves a family.

Several machinists from Troy have been camping out for the past month on Goat Island, in the Hudson River, off Glasco.

W. L. Finger, the new Postmaster, is fixing up quarters for the Post Office. An entire new set of boxes will be put in.

Peter, Ezra and John, of the steamboat "Sarotoga," is still confined to his bed with gastric fever.

The Amphion Quartette will spend a day in the Catskills this week.

Milton News. The old building on Main-street which was recently torn down and used as a room for the "Miller block" was one of the first houses built in this village. The National Pioneer, one of the first papers printed in Ulster County, was issued from the building.

Townsend Mann has secured a permit from the authorities at West Point to visit the Post with the M. E. Sunday School on its annual excursion next week. The Milton schools will be joined by the schools in Marlborough.

The steamer "City of Kingston" carries much produce from this village.

Marlborough Notes. A correspondent writing from Devils' Lake, North Dakota, says: "Show a Dakota community something that will help the town and public spirit will do the rest. The more novel the proposition, the quicker the response with money and time." Can the same be said of this village?

The annual School Meeting will be held in the Grand-Street School House on Tuesday evening.

Fruit-growers say the white grape vines are not affected with the "black rot."

North Main street was repaired on Thursday.

New Paltz. Fruit-growers in this section are desirous of holding a meeting to talk over the question of "crop preservation." THE FREEMAN has been asked to say that at the next meeting of the Ulster and Dutchess Farmers' Club, which will be held in Poughkeepsie on Tuesday, August 13, the question will be submitted for discussion.

Oscar Zimmerman has bought the property now occupied by him of Dr. Charles Deyo. The price paid was $2,500.

The price in this market for milk has been fixed at one and one-half cents per quart, delivered.

Insurance rates in this village have been lowered.

Ellenville and Vicinity. The Leurenkill and Pantiekill base ball nines played a game on the Driving Park one day recently. The score was 19 to 27 in favor of the Pantiekill.

The game of base ball between printers and clerks resulted in a victory for the clerks by a score of 21 to 15.

Among the coming events here is "Uncle Tom's Cabin in a tent" and a large excursion from Port Jervis.

Asa S. Russell has sold his property, near the Canal-street engine-house, to J. Rowden.

Modena. The Hon. C. K. Coutant, of Omaha, Neb., is visiting friends hereabout.

The library of the M. E. Sunday School will soon be enlarged.

JOHN L. DUGLAS. In this City, at the residence of Mrs. Jacob P. Kenton, Sunday, July 28, 1889, Jane, wife of William B. Douglas, aged 67 years, 5 months and 2 days. Funeral on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, from Church of Holy Spirit. Relatives and friends are invited.

True Economy. It is true economy to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla. "100 Doses One Dollar," is original with and true only of this popular medicine. If you wish to prove this, buy a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and measure its contents. You will find it to hold 100 teaspoonfuls. Now read the directions, and you will find that the average dose for persons of different ages is less than a teaspoonful. This is certainly conclusive and unanswerable evidence of the peculiar strength and economy of Hood's Sarsaparilla. "We began using Hood's Sarsaparilla in our institution some months ago, and having watched its effects, wish to say that we find it a good, reliable and beneficial medicine for family use, and for hospital and institution, such as ours." SISTERS OF MERCY, No. 14 North-street, Cincinnati, O.

"I took Hood's Sarsaparilla for loss of appetite, dyspepsia and general languor. It did me a vast amount of good, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it." J. W. WILFORD, Quincy, Ill.

Health Better Than Ever. "I have been troubled by a scrofulous affection of my life. It is one of the marked recollections of my boyhood days, and for several years has rendered me unable to labor much. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I have been using at intervals for ten years, is the best thing I have ever taken. I am now 60, and my general health seems better than ever." H. D. ABBOTT, Warren, N. H.

"I was run down from close application to work, but was told I had malaria and was dosed with quinine, etc., which was useless. I decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and now feel strong and cheerful. I feel satisfied it will benefit any who give it a fair trial." W. B. BEAMISH, 261 Spring-street, New-York City.

Directly Opposite Abel-st., Hutton Building. "Wyant, that coffee I bought from you is the best I have had in a year!" "Misther Wyant, that Tea you sold me is splendid!"

Such are the expressions we hear already and we have only been in business three days. We intend to make the impression we have made a lasting one, and if good goods will do it, we will.

A word in regard to our presents. They are not given by us, at least, to cover the sale of poor goods, but are a part of our profits which we return to our customers for their steady patronage. The Teas and Coffees we sell are a better quality than could be purchased at any store for the same or even a higher price and we are a local concern and live here among you and your interests are ours also.

Our opening night was the biggest success on record. Thanks to all our many kind friends who contributed by their presence to make it so. We shall always keep our word with the public. We advertised that Governor Hill and staff would not be present, and you already know that we told the truth.

CITY AND SUBURBAN NEWS

AND BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVER-HEARD HERE TO-DAY.

The "Dog Days"—Views Obtainable from City Hall—"A Sign of a Hard Winter." Perhaps a Senseless Practice at Post Office. More Rain Promised on Wednesday.

In a conversation in regard to the Old Senate House to-day, it was said that a keeper should have been appointed for the place as soon as the improvements were finished. A keeper would naturally have an interest in making the place attractive to sight-seers and in all probability would have experienced no difficulty in collecting antique relics in a place so rich in them as this City.

The following business has been transacted in Ulster County Surrogate's Court: Contest of the will of Jane Freer withdrawn. The will will be admitted to probate. The matter of proving will of Leah C. Deputay adjourned to October 21. Will of Isabelle A. Mann, of Milton, proved. The bequests are as follows: To a sister, Sarah M. Ketchum, silver and gold jewelry, paintings, etc., and $500 in money; Isaac S. Ketchum, books and pictures; Martha M. Hicks, $100; John Mann, Jr., $100 and medical bills; Laura Mann, $100; Phebe H. Ketchum, books and furniture; Clara B. Cook, furniture, bedding, jewelry, clothing; Rachel B. Vail, clothing; Henry A. Cook, furniture; Esther DeGarmo, furniture, pictures and $100; Mary Jane Raymond, $100; Rachel B. Vail, $100; Lydia B. Adams, furniture; Townsend H. Sherman, $500; $1,000 to Henry A. Cook and $1,000 to Clara B. Cook. The rest of the property to be divided between Clara B. Cook and Phebe H. Ketchum. Townsend H. Sherman and Henry E. Lacey were appointed Executors. Will made by A. 1887, and witnessed by Phebe H. Ketchum, Henry H. Hilleck and Eula Schultz Hilleck. A hearing was had in the matter of the estate of the late John J. Duffy.

Exquisite landscape views are obtainable from the City Hall. These views extend to the foot hills of the Catskills, and the meadows are so fresh and the mountains so clear, deep blue in tint, that strangers who come in town go in raptures over the beauty of the scene. Photographs have been taken of these places, but a photograph is tame and colorless. A true picture of Catskill Mountain scenes can never be taken until the art of "holding" the rich colors of nature is discovered.

Meyer Brothers are in possession of a copy of the "Star Gazette," dated January 4, 1890. It contains the following advertisement:

With a convenient plan building, lying in the town of Rochester. By the mill race, inexhaustible quantity of pine wood—Also a Healthy Active Negro Woman. No one who is not a member of any person inclined to purchase may participate in applying to John Schoonmaker Jun. at Rochester. Nov. 15, 1890.

A stenographer who is in town makes use of an improved phonograph, known as the graphophone. The stenographer dictates his notes to the graphophone. Any copyist can by operating the machine reproduce the sounds and then write out the words. In reading to the machine the person must speak loud, deliberately and distinct. The machines are rented for $40 a year.

There are a number of buildings with porches in front in this City. Porches of olden times were named according to the number of columns. For instance, those with four columns were called tetrastyle, those with six columns, hexastyle, and with eight columns octastyle.

Young girls go to the Post Office twice every day and ask for letters, who do not get one in a year's time. The practice is an annoying one to the clerks, who have enough to do without being bothered by such a persistent and senseless class of people.

Summer boarders, who are stopping at various points in Ulster and Greene counties, along the lines of the Ulster & Delaware and Stony Clove railroads, come to this City frequently to make purchases. Many of them take a look at the Old Senate House.

Young hoodlums are having "fine times" with peans on trees in the Albee-Street Presbyterian parsonage yard. The practice is an annoying one to the minister, who appears to be afraid to molest them with his "fine times" and the boys not the least.

The Common Council and Board of Alms Commissioners will meet August 2; the Board of Excise August 5, and the Board of Health August 7; the Assessors will meet at the City Hall on Tuesday, August 20.

A person who has the figures says that it cost about $1,000 to repair Fair-Street with the new steam roller. It is estimated that it will cost $10,000 to put Union-avenue in good condition.

During the heavy rain-fall to-day the meadows of the Kingston Lowlands were "alive" with little "toads." The hundreds of them were gathered by fishermen, to be used as bait.

William T. Holt, who was Deputy Internal Revenue Collector of this District, intends to remove to New-York City. At present the office here is vacant.

Much food has been spoiled here during the past two days by the sultry weather. Demands upon ice men have been large.

Seven children of one family in Wiltwyck are lying ill of remittent fever. They range in age from 19 years to nine months.

Charles H. Burnett, of Washington, is in town. He is one of the stenographers of the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

A child of John H. Dittus, on Union-avenue, near the West Shore Railroad crossing, died yesterday of diphtheria.

Owing to the absence of a quorum of Trustees, a meeting of the Kingston Board of Education was held last night.

Sidewalks are being repaired in portions of this City. There are many more pitfalls yet to be looked after.

These are the dog days. Dogs can be killed humanely by firing a revolver ball into the forehead.

There are outbuildings and cess-pools here that should be inspected by the health officials at once.

Keep it in mind—"No cigarettes to boys" is the watch-word of conscientious vendors of cigars here.

Kingston Lodge, No. 419, I. O. O. F., will work the Initiatory and First Degrees on Friday night.

Work will probably be commenced on the First Ward sewers about the middle of August.

There are a large number of water current bushes growing on the Kingston Point flats. Even the oldest weather prophet knows not at what moment rain will fall.

Many people would be pleased to see a firemen's parade here the coming fall.

The new mail-house at South-Rondout is rapidly approaching completion.

More rain and lower temperature are promised hereabout for Wednesday.

The Kingston Lowlands are green with fields of corn and cabages.

The humidity of the atmosphere this forenoon was 96 per cent.

Ulster County peaches, early varieties, are in the local markets.

The heavy rain this forenoon played havoc with hillside streets.

No complaints are heard that cisterns are empty these days.

Wall-street now has a clean but a very noisy pavement.

Catsnip is being gathered in the suburbs by certain women.

The large hay crop is said to be "a sign of a hard winter."

The rush to the Catskill Mountains continues.

FRUIT ALONG THE HUDSON RIVER.

Grapes Rotting Badly—Early Peach Crop All Right—Sweet Corn—Rising Apples.

The storm now prevalent and the muggy, humid atmosphere of several previous days have played havoc with many Concord grape vines along the Hudson River and in inland localities also. The "berries" have been shelling badly for weeks. Now they are dropping on the ground in heaps, and, in instances, rotting. Owners of vineyards are becoming greatly exercised, and the feasibility of calling a meeting of leading grape-growers to discuss the situation is being canvassed. There are growers who say that the "black rot," which recently ruined acres of vines in France and Germany, has appeared. Other growers say they attribute the shelling of the fruit to mildew.

Returns received to-day from 40 localities between Cornwall and Coeymans and elsewhere show that the grape crop in its entirety has been damaged fully 50 per cent. If more favorable atmospheric conditions did not speedily prevail, the probability is the loss inside of a week will be much more. Owners of vineyards are trying all sorts of "remedies" with varying success. This is the first time that the Concord grape crop has failed the producers along the Hudson Valley in 25 years, time. The vine has been looked upon as a "sure grower and producer," and the acreage of Concord has been steadily increased year after year.

The first of the early peaches are ripe. The crop along the Hudson River and inland, of counties generally is one of the finest ever grown. The varieties now ripe or in process of ripening are beautifully colored and juicy to a degree. Returns show that the yield of late fruit promises to be excellent in quality, and compared to the past seven years large size.

Agents for English houses are buying large quantities of apples on the trees. The fruit when ripe will be shipped to Liverpool.

HOURS OF SUMMER RECREATION.

Outings at Points Up and Down the Hudson River and in this City.

On October 16 the members of Rapid Hose Company will make an excursion to Newburgh and participate in the annual parade and inspection of the Fire Department of that City.

The excursion of the A. M. E. Zion Church to Long Island to-day was liberally patronized from this City despite the rain. The excursion large left the dock at about 10 o'clock.

The members of the Newburgh Young Men's Christian Association will make a half-day excursion to this City on the steamboat Jacob H. Tremper on August 13.

The members of the Downtown Young Men's Christian Association Boys' Branch will go on an outing to Log's Mills on Saturday, if the weather is pleasant.

On Thursday Ellenville people will make an excursion to Coney Island, via the New-York, Ontario & Western Railroad and the steamboat Mary Powell.

On Thursday the members of the Spring-Street Lutheran Sunday School will make an excursion to Cole's Grove, near Catskill. Division No. 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will make an excursion to Otsawana Island on Thursday, August 15.

The Baptist Sunday School of Catskill will picnic at Cole's Grove on Friday.

In the Church Porch.

A summer festival will be given on the Poughkeepsie Driving Park on August 15. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund for a new church for St. Mary's Congregation.

The monthly business and social meeting of the Society of Christian Endeavor of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church will be held on Friday evening.

A handsome window, in the form of a jeweled cross, has been placed in the apex of the west front of Christ Church, Poughkeepsie.

There will be a Service of Song for young men at the rooms of the Downtown Young Men's Christian Association to-night.

The next meeting of the Highland Clericus will be held at New- Windsor on August 9.

Along the Docks Here.

Last night several tows rounded the Esopus light-house at about the same time. The lights on the boats made a pleasing scene for people in Ponchokiock.

The whistle of the steamboat James W. Baldwin was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek at 10:44 o'clock last night.

There arrived at tide-water at Edenville yesterday 36 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 4,800 tons of coal.

Another Pennsylvania Coal Company boat is nearly completed at the Baisden boatyard at Edenville.

Seven schooners came into the Rondout Creek for cargoes to-day.

In Recorder's Court To-Day.

Last night Officer Cassidy arrested a boatman named John Keator, of Rock Lock, on suspicion of having stolen a watch from the trunk of James Earley, Captain of a Delaware & Hudson Canal boat. When arraigned Keator denied having taken the watch. The case was adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Owen Rafferty withdrew a charge of assault and John Moody, the accused, was discharged after paying the costs—$4.

John Schillman, farm hand, Ohioville, intoxicated, 10 days in the Ulster County Jail.

Dock Laborers' Wages to be Advanced.

Beginning on August 1 the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company will advance the dock laborers wages from $1.35, the present rate, to $1.50 per day. This action is voluntary on the part of the Company, the men having made no demand for an increase, and the "raise" will be a surprise to them.

Local Sporting Notes.

A game of ball will be played on the Union-avenue grounds on Friday between the All American nine, colored, and the West Shores.

There will be races on the Goshen Driving Park on Saturday.

An Overcoat Worn by Washington.

J. Hardenberg Jenkins, Milton, Ulster County, is the possessor of an overcoat, once worn by General George Washington. It was given to Jenkins in 1849 by Daniel Hasbrouck, who then owned the Headquarters grounds at Newburgh.

Aged 102 Years.

The funeral of Mrs. Herrington, of Milton, whose age was 102 years, was largely attended on Sunday. The services were held in the Catholic Church. The remains were interred at Poughkeepsie.

More July Fish Stories Told.

Several fine striped bass were caught from the "City of Kingston's" dock last evening. Fine meshes of trout are being caught in Catskill Mountain streams.

The Rush to the Catskill Mountains.

Notwithstanding the heavy down-pour of rain to-day over 100 people en route for the Catskills arrived here on the 2:35 West Shore train this afternoon and 77 on the ferry-boat Transport's Day-boat trip.

Hay, oats and rye are good crops in the Bimewater region.

Woodstock. Mrs. Harris Burhans died of cancer on July 25.

SUBURBAN HAPPENINGS.

THE NEWS IN "LONG SHORE AND INLAND COUNTIES.

Fruit Growers to Hold a Meeting—Crops at Rosendale—Sport at Ellenville—An Old Building Demolished at Milton—A Dutchess County Criminal Case.

THE FREEMAN desires to make this department as complete and comprehensive as possible, and to this end invites its readers in places not represented by regular correspondents to communicate news.

THE HUDSON RIVER AND INLAND.

A press dispatch from Poughkeepsie reads: "John C. Bradley, a farmer who lived near Hibernia Village, Dutchess County, was charged last spring with robbing George Vail's store in Hibernia. He settled with Vail by paying him $1,000, but he and his wife were afterwards indicted for the crime. In the meantime they had moved West. A few days ago Frank L. A. Akery, a lawyer, received a letter from Bradley dated Wyoming, Neb., in which he appealed strongly to Akery to find out if he was indicted, and if he was he would come to Poughkeepsie with his wife, at his own expense, and give himself up, take his sentence and serve out his time."

He gives as his reason for doing so that he is tired of the West and that his wife is rapidly going to the bad. He feels as though he and she ought to both serve out sentence in prison and he thinks that is the only thing that will save her from utter ruin. Officer Hugh Morgan, armed with a requisition from Governor Hill, will start to-night for Wyoming to bring Bradley and his wife back. In addition to sending the letter Bradley has also telegraphed twice to hurry up, as he is afraid his wife will run away with another man. Bradley is a war veteran and was made permanently lame by wounds received in battle."

A. Campbell, of Middletown, representing the New York Dairy Company, Limited, has purchased the bottling creamery of R. B. Sloan at Oxford station. The dairy company formerly secured its supplies from Long Island, but now owns creameries at Gulf Summit near Deposit, and at Riverside, near Binghamton, both on the Erie Road.

A night or two ago a panic was caused in the Mattawan Opera House by the "calling off" of a musician at a lawn party next door. The word "Forward" bawled out by the musician was interpreted "fire" by the audience.

Some Italians are "just like some Americans" in the matter of spending money. One was paid $22 in Poughkeepsie on Friday. He went "on a spree" and when arrested, on Saturday, the only money found on his person was a one-dollar bill.

At Haverstraw last evening the body of a man, supposed, from papers found in the clothing, to be that of John Gallagher, a suicide, was taken from Eckerson's Pond.

The Peter Lasher farm of 200 acres at Red Hook has been purchased by Albert Carnright, of Saugerties, for $5,710.

A week attempt was made one day recently to prosecute a Poughkeepsie man for a violation of the excise law.

The village of Rhinebeck now has a Board of Health.

Dr. O. M. Shedd, of Poughkeepsie, is ill.

Glacial Matters.

The body of a West-Cook, of New-York City, who died of a heart ailment, was taken to the "Ansonia" on its Thursday night trip from New-York, was brought to this place on Sunday for interment, in compliance with his last request, this being his former home and birthplace. He was about 50 years of age, and leaves a family.

Several inmates from Troy have been camping out for the past month on Goat Island, in the Hudson River, off Glauco.

W. L. Finger, the new Postmaster, is fixing up quarters for the Post Office. An entire new set of boxes will be put in.

M. E. Bridg is taking the census of the School District, not only of children of school age, but of the entire population.

Pilot Ezra Whitaker, of the steamboat "Saratzon," is still confined to his bed with gastric fever.

The Amphion Quartette will spend a day in the Catskills this week.

The old building on Main-street which was recently torn down to make room for the "Miller block," was one of the first houses built in this village. The National Pioneer, one of the first papers printed in Ulster County, was issued from the building.

Townsend Mann has secured a permit from the authorities at West Point to visit the post with the M. E. Sunday School on its annual excursion next week. The Milton schools will be joined by the school's in Marlborough.

The steamer "City of Kingston" carries much produce from this village.

Marlborough Notes.

A correspondent writing from Devils Lake, North Dakota, says: "Show a Dakota community something that will help the town and public spirit will do the rest. The more novel the proposition, the quicker the response will be, money and time." Can the same be said of this village?

The annual School Meeting will be held in the Grand School House on Tuesday evening.

Fruit-growers say the white grape vines are not affected with the "black rot."

North Main street was repaired on Thursday.

New Patz.

Fruit-growers in this section are desirous of holding a meeting to talk over the question of "crop preservation." THE FREEMAN has been asked to say that at the next meeting of the Ulster and Dutchess Farmers' Club, which will be held in Poughkeepsie on Tuesday, August 13, the question will be submitted for discussion.

Oscar Zimmerman has bought the property now occupied by him of Dr. Charles Deyo. The price paid was $2,500.

The price in this market for milk has been fixed at one and one-half cents per quart, delivered.

Insurance rates in this village have been lowered.

Ellenville and Vicinity.

The Leurenkill and Faintiekill base ball nines played a game on the Driving Park one day recently. The score was 19 to 27 in favor of the Faintiekill.

The game of base ball between printers and clerks resulted in a victory for the clerks by a score of 21 to 15.

Among the coming events here is "Uncle Tom's Cabin in a tent" and a large excursion from Port-Jervis.

Assa S. Russell has sold his property, near the Canal-street engine-house, to J. Rowden, Modena.

The Hon. C. K. Coutant, of Omaha, Neb., is visiting friends hereabout.

The library of the M. E. Sunday School will soon be enlarged.

J. A. Deyo has been reappointed Postmaster.

St. Remy. The Rev. James M. Compton, of Columbia County, preached in the chapel Sunday afternoon. He will preach again next Sunday afternoon. The Rev. J. Bogardus is away on his vacation.

West-Horlog. An excursion by the G. A. R. Post of this place is expected to take place soon.

Marriage bells are expected to ring in this vicinity soon.

Plattekill Valley. The trackmen on the Walkkill Valley Railroad are widening the crossing beyond this village known as the "Plattekill crossing."

Rhinebeck. Armstrong Post, G. A. R., will make an excursion to New-York on the steamboat Mary Powell on August 9.

Rosendale. Hay, oats and rye are good crops in the Bimewater region.

Woodstock. Mrs. Harris Burhans died of cancer on July 25.

The following business has been transacted in Ulster County Surrogate's Court, County of Ulster, on the 29th day of July, 1889. The will of the late John F. Freer, deceased, was admitted to probate. The matter of proving will of Leah C. Deputay adjourned to October 31. Will of Isabella A. Mann, of Milton, proved. The bequests are as follows: To a sister, Sarah M. Ketcham, silver and gold jewelry, paintings, etc., and $500 in money; Isaac S. Ketcham, books and pictures; Martin M. Hicks, $100; John Mann, Jr., $100 and medical books; Laura A. Carpenter, $1,500; Phoebe H. Ketcham, books and furniture; Clara B. Cook, furniture, bedding, jewelry, clothing; Rachel B. Yail, clothing; Henry A. Cook, furniture; Esther DeCarmon, furniture, pictures and $100; Mary Jane Raymond, $100; Rachel B. Yail, $100; Lydia B. Adams, furniture; Townsend H. Sherman, $500; $1,000 to Henry A. Cook and $1,000 to Clara B. Cook. The rest of the property to be divided between Clara B. Cook and Phoebe H. Ketcham. Townsend H. Sherman and Henry E. Lacey were appointed Executors. Will made June 6, 1887, and witnessed by Phoebe H. Ketcham, Henry H. Hallack and Eula Schults Hallack. A hearing was had in the matter of the estate of the late John J. Duffy.

Exquisite landscape views are obtainable from the City Hall. These views extend to the foot hills of the Catskills, and the mountains are so fresh and the mountains of such a deep blueish tint that strangers who come in town go on rhapsodies over the beauty of the scene. Photographs have been taken of these places, but a photograph is tame and colorless. A true picture of Catskill Mountain scenes can never be taken until the art of "holding" the rich colors of nature is discovered.

Myer Brothers are in possession of a copy of the Ulster Gazette, dated July 1, 1889. It contains the following advertisement:

FOR SALE
The one half of a
Saw Mill
With a convenient place for building, lying in the town of Beekmantown, Ulster County, New York, containing about 100 acres of land, and a healthy active sawing machine. Any person inclined to purchase may know particulars by applying to John Schomaker Jun. at Beekmantown, N.Y., Nov. 13, 1890.

A stenographer who is in town makes use of an improved phonograph, known as the graphophone. The stenographer dictates his notes to the graphophone. Any copyist can by operating the machine reproduce the sounds and then write out the words. In reading to the machine the person must speak loud, deliberately and distinct. The machines are rented for $40 a year.

There are a number of buildings with porches in front in this City. Porticoes of olden times were named according to the number of columns. For instance, those with four columns were called tetrastyle, those with six columns, hexastyle, and with eight columns octastyle.

Young girls who go to the Post Office twice every day and ask for letters, who do not go one in a year's time. The practice is an annoying one to the clerks, who have enough to do without being bothered by such a persistent and senseless class of people.

Summer boarders, who are stopping at various points in Ulster and Greene counties along the lines of the Ulster & Delaware and Stony Clove railroads, come to this City frequently to make purchases. Many of them take a look at the old Senate House.

Young hoodlums are having "fine times" with pins on trees in the Abel-Street Presbyterian parsonage yard. There appears to be no one "to molest them or make them afraid"—the boys not the parson.

FRUIT ALONG THE HUDSON RIVER.

Grapes Rattling Badly—Early Peach Crop All Right—Strawberries Buying Appear.

The storm now prevalent and the muggy, humid atmosphere of several previous days have played havoc with many Concord grape vines along the Hudson River and in inland localities also. The "berries" have been shelling badly for weeks. Now they are dropping on the ground in heaps, and, in instances, rotting. Owners of vineyards are becoming greatly exercised, and the feasibility of calling a meeting of leading grape-growers to discuss the situation is being canvassed. There are growers who say that the "black rot," which recently ruined acres of vines in France and Germany, has appeared. Other growers say they attribute the shelling of the fruit to mildew.

Returns received to-day from 40 localities between Cornwall and Coeymans and elsewhere show that the grape crop in its entirety has been damaged fully 50 per cent. If more favorable atmospheric conditions do not speedily prevail, the probability is that the loss inside of a week will be much more. Owners of vineyards are trying all sorts of "remedies" with varying success. This is the first time the Concord grape crop has failed the producers along the Hudson Valley in 25 years' time. The vine has been looked upon as a "sure grower and producer," and the acreage of Concord has been steadily increased year after year.

The first of the early peaches are ripe. The crop along the Hudson River and inland tier of counties generally is one of the finest ever grown. The varieties now ripe or in process of ripening are beautifully colored and juicy to a degree. Returns show that the yield of late fruit promises to be excellent in quality, and compared to the past seven years large in size.

Agents for English houses are buying large quantities of apples on the trees. The fruit when ripe will be shipped to Liverpool.

SUBURBAN HAPPENINGS.

THE NEWS IN 'LONG SHORE AND INLAND COUNTIES.

Fruit Growers to Hold a Meeting—Crops at Rosendale—Sport at Ellenville—An Old Building Demolished at Milton—A Dutchess County Criminal Case.

THE FREEMAN desires to make this department as complete and comprehensive as possible, and to this end invites its readers in places not represented by regular correspondents to communicate news.

THE HUDSON RIVER AND INLAND.

A press dispatch from Poughkeepsie reads: "John C. Bradley, a farmer who lived near Hibernia Village, Dutchess County, was charged last spring with robbing George Vail's store in Hibernia. He settled with Vail by paying him $1,000, but he and his wife were afterwards indicted for the crime. In the meantime they had moved West. A few days ago Frank L. A. Akery, a lawyer, received a letter from Bradley dated Wyoming, Neb., in which he appealed strongly to Akery to find out if he was indicted, and if he was he would come to Poughkeepsie with his wife, at his own expense, and give himself up, take his sentence and serve out his time."

He gives as his reason for doing so that he is tired of the West and that his wife is rapidly going to the bad. He feels as though he and she ought to both serve out a sentence in prison and he thinks that is the only thing that will save the latter from a life of crime. He also telegraphed to his wife, as he is afraid his wife will run away with another man. Bradley is a war veteran and was made permanently lame by wounds received in battle.

A. Campbell, of Middletown, representing the New York Dairy Company, Limited, has purchased the bottling creamery of R. R. Sloan at Oxford station. True Economy.

It is true economy to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla. For "100 Doses One Dollar," is original with and true to the original. If you wish to prove this, buy a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and read its contents. You will find it to hold 100 teaspoonfuls. Now read the directions, and you will find that the average dose for persons of different ages is less than a teaspoonful. This is certainly conclusive and unanswerable evidence of the peculiar strength and economy of

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"We began using Hood's Sarsaparilla in our institution some months ago, and having watched its effects, wish to say that we find it a good, reliable and beneficial medicine for family use, and for hospitals and institutions such as ours." Sisters of Mercy, West Cincinnati, Cincinnati, O.

"I took Hood's Sarsaparilla for loss of appetite, dyspepsia and general languor. It did me a vast amount of good, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it." J. W. WILFORD, Port-Jervis, Ill.

Health Better Than Ever.

"I have been troubled by a scrofulous affection a my life. It is one of the marked recollections of my boyhood days, and for several years has rendered me unable to labor much. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I have been using at intervals for ten years, is the best thing I have ever taken. I am now 60, and my general health seems better than ever." H. D. AMOR, Warren, N. H.

"I was run down from excessive application to work, but was told I had malaria and was dosed with quinine, etc., which was useless. I decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and am now feeling strong and the 'Miller block' is a thing of the past. I can give it a fair trial." W. B. BEAMAN, 201 Spring-street, New-York City.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
